

Video: The Reality of Human Rights in Australia

By OneAngryAussie

Asia-Pacific Research, September 29, 2021

Region: Oceania

Theme: Justice

All Global Research articles can be read in 51 languages by activating the “Translate Website” drop down menu on the top banner of our home page (Desktop version).

Visit and follow us on Instagram at @crg_globalresearch.

Please hear the Prime Minister of Australia, Scott Morison telling the world how important human rights are and see how well they were respected in Australia last week.

The Premier of Victoria, Dan Andrews, has been becoming increasingly authoritarian over the past 20 months. He has been using the police to repress political debate, including arresting a pregnant woman and old men for expressing their political views on social media. Unchecked, he is now using the police to repress, punish and brutalise the people for expressing any dissenting political opinion.

Police Chief Commissioner Shane Patton is not merely derelict in upholding his oath of office to serve and protect the people of Victoria, but has been inciting his force to violence against the people. We now see police shooting people and using chemical weapons to terrorise people into silence. We see a police force that is bereft of discipline and restraint, and their criminal behaviour is encouraged by the chief of police to protect the ego of the premier.

Last week, the Premier of Victoria and his Chief Commissioner of Police crossed a line. They let their egos cloud any judgement of what constitutes good government.

A wise leader would recognise that the people need to express their disapproval at their government’s policies. A wise chief of police would have his force directing traffic, making space for people to march peacefully and arresting the odd boofhead starting any trouble. The people would have voiced their opinions, listened to a few speakers, got bored and gone home. There would have been one demo on Saturday and that would be it. This is the Australian way.

Instead, we’ve seen a week of escalating violence instigated by the police who are now intimidating everybody approaching downtown Melbourne in fear of another protest forming.

A wise leader would be reassuring the people that the government is in control of the situation and uniting the people in common cause. Dan Andrews has been instilling irrational fear in the people, is demonstrably out of control, is sowing the seeds of division with policies that intend to institute a discriminatory two-class society, and is using the police to wage war on the working class.

Depriving the rights of one Australian is to attack the rights of ALL Australians.

This is now far beyond the policies of lockdowns, masks, mandatory medication and vaccine passports being used to create first and second class citizens. This is about a Premier who is out of control, ruling by decree and using the organs of State to brutally repress political debate and deprive the people of their rights to freely associate and express their political opinions.

It takes a lifetime to build a reputation and seconds to destroy it. Last week, Daniel Andrews and Shane Patton destroyed Australia's reputation as a free and fair society.

The only way we can retrieve it now is to remove these evil men from office and hold them to account before the Courts. This action would demonstrate to all future governments in Australia and to the world at large, that when tyranny raises its ugly head in Australia that we have the means and the will to stop it in its tracks and to swiftly remove despots from public office.

The Parliament of Victoria must sack these men immediately for abusing their power, and if the Parliament fails to act, then the Governor of Victoria, The Honorable Linda Dessau must do her duty and act to protect the people of Victoria from a despotic government and a police force that is out of control.

Here's the truth about the protest by construction workers protesting their union leaders betraying them about mandatory vaccinations.

*

Note to readers: Please click the share buttons above or below. Follow us on Instagram, @crg_globalresearch. Forward this article to your email lists. Crosspost on your blog site, internet forums. etc.

The original source of this article is Asia-Pacific Research
Copyright © OneAngryAussie, Asia-Pacific Research, 2021

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: OneAngryAussie

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). Asia-Pacific Research will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. Asia-Pacific Research grants permission to cross-post Asia-Pacific Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Asia-Pacific Research article. For publication of Asia-Pacific Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: editors@asia-pacificresearch.com www.asia-pacificresearch.com contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: editors@asia-pacificresearch.com